

Mexican Flower Market - Xochimilco

von Claudia Gonzalez Burguete

Xochimilco is the biggest flower market in Mexico City and these are some of the flowers grown Xochimilco is a self-sufficient borough formed by many chinampas - artificial islands -surrounded by a complex system of canals, where the main transportation is the trajineras -boat. The citizens sell their produce at the local market, including flowers, making of Xochimilco the biggest flower market in Mexico City.
